

RANZCOG Position Statement

Health assessments and screenings should be completed as recommended by expert guidelines, with informed consent and with the assistance of a qualified interpreter as needed, and screening should be